

ARMY SONGS

O GLORIOUS FOUNTAIN!
Tune.—The judgment day, 62.
A precious Fountain's opened wide
To cleanse the guilty soul;
Help to plunge beneath its tide:
Now cleanse and make me whole.

Chorus
Spirit of power descend on me
And nerve me for the fight;
Burst all my bonds and set me free
To walk with Thee in white.

The stains of sin, O Lord, remove,
My darkness turn to light;
Fill all my soul with perfect love,
And make me pure and white.

The stream of Blood has reached
My heart,
I feel your power within;
From all things wrong I gladly part,
Cleansed from all infirm sin.

The glorious Fountain rich and free,
Still washes from all sin;
Its cleansing current reaches me,
And make me pure within.

TELL THE GOOD NEWS

Tunes.—What's the news? 126. We are travelling home, 128; S.B. 103.
Whene'er we meet, you always say,
"What's the news?"

Pray what's the order of the day?
What's the news?

Oh, I have got good news to tell,
My Saviour has done all things well,
And triumphed over death and hell,
That's the news!

The Lamb was slain on Calvary,
That's the news!
To set a world of sinners free,
That's the news!

For us He bowed His sacred head,
For us His precious Blood was shed,
And now He's risen from the dead,
That's the news!

IMPART THY SPIRIT, LORD!
Tunes.—It was on the cross, 8; Roll on, dry streams, 8; S.A. 103.
O Lord, Thy Heavenly grace impart
And fill my frail, infirm heart!
Henceforth my chief desire shall be
To dedicate myself to Thee.

Whatever pursues my time employ,
One thought shall fill my soul with joy;
That silent, secret thought shall be:
That all my hopes are fixed on Thee.

Thy glorious eye pervadeth space:
Thou art present, Lord, in every place;
And whereso'er my lot may be,
Still shall my spirit cleave to Thee.

GUIDE ME, LORD
Tunes.—Boston 2; Confidence, 4;
Song Book, 398.

O Thou to whose all-searching sight,
The darkness shineth as the light,
Search, pray my heart, it pants for Thee.
Oh, burst these bonds, and set it free!

Wash out its stain, refine its dress,
Nail my affection to the Cross;
Hallow each instant, let all within
Be clean, as Thou, my Lord, art clean.

Saviour, whereto Thy steps I see,
Dauntless, untiring, will I follow Thee
Oh, let Thy hand support me still,
And lead me to Thy holy hill!

VICTORY FOR ME
Tunes.—Come, comrades, dear,
136; He lives, 138.
Oh, glorious hope of perfect love!
It fills me up to things above;

THE WAR CRY

March 25, 1917

WE ARE

Looking For You

It bears on eagles' wings;
It gives thy ravished soul a taste
And makes me for some moments feast.
With Jesus, priests, and kings.

Now, O my Jesus, bring me in!
Cast out Thy foes; thou didst sin,
The carnal man to cover;
The purpose of Thy death divide!
Give me, with the sanctified;
The heritage of love!

GOD BLESS OUR BOYS IN KHAKI

Tune.—Tommy Atkins.
For our Soldiers we are praying
every day;
Ask God to help them always do the right;
Keep them marching in the straight and narrow way;
Ever upwards always walking in the light;
It doesn't matter what they have to face.

I'm sure the grace of God will be enough;
So for them we'll keep on praying.
That they may be kept from straying.
While they tread the road that's often hard and rough.

Chorus

God bless our boys in Khaki,
keep them joyful every day,
While they're fighting for the Empire,
may they never go away;
May they always live for Jesus, ever seek to do His will;
And when they're facing danger, perfect peace their hearts will fill.

They have left their Corps and comrades far behind,

For the Empire they have crossed the briny deep.

At the front so many hardships they will help them just to stay at home and sleep.

It doesn't matter how brave are their hearts,

Lots of courage if ye are needing right enough.

So for them we'll keep on praying,
That they may be kept from straying.

While they tread the road that's
often hard and rough.

Some of them will be returning by
and by.

Marching homeward to the beating of the drum;

Many others will be buried where they die.

We will mourn the loss of those who never come.

It doesn't matter who is left to fight,

For the balance there is surely work enough.

So for them we'll keep on praying,
That they may be kept from straying.

While they tread the road that's
often hard and rough.

CAMPBELLFIELD

Some of them will be returning by
and by.

Marching homeward to the beating of the drum;

Many others will be buried where they die.

We will mourn the loss of those
who never come.

It doesn't matter who is left to
fight,

For the balance there is surely work enough.

So for them we'll keep on praying,

That they may be kept from straying.

While they tread the road that's often hard and rough.

WE ARE

Looking For You

It will search for missing persons in any part of the globe, especially and, as far as possible, in Canada & U.S.A., Texas and Alberta Streets, Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Persons lost or buried will be located and possibly helped to help defend themselves.

Officers, Soldiers, and Friends are requested to assist by looking regularly through the columns of this paper for information concerning any case, always stating name and number of person.

*Territorial Staff Band will accompany.

COL. & MRS. McMICHAEL

Guelph—March 10-11.

Windsor Sound—March 24-25.

Windsor (Ont.)—March 31-April 1.

34th Year, No. 25.

BRIG. MORRIS—Owen Sound—

Mar. 17-18; Wiarton, Mar. 19;

Rhode Avenue, Mar. 21; Temple,

Mar. 25; Cobourg, Mar. 31-April

1; Dovercourt, April 8.

BRIG. ABBY—Aurora, March 1.

BRIG. BETTRIDGE—Tampa,

Mar. 11; Lansdowne, Mar. 13.

BRIG. AND MRS. BEL—Painter Street (Holiness Meeting),

Mar. 16, 23, 30; Chester, Mar. 11.

MAJOR JENNINGS—Dovercourt,

April 1. (Assisted by Trade Staff).

MAJOR AND MRS. CRICHTON—

Windsor, Mar. 10-12.

Staff-Captain and Mrs. Egan—

Kentville, Mar. 10-11; Windsor,

Mar. 12.

Staff-Captain Cornish—Toronto, 1.

March 18.

Captain Spouter (Territorial Organization of Life-Saving Scouts)—

Guelph, Mar. 18-12.

COMMISSIONER SOWTON

Vancouver—March 10-12. (Young People's Congress.)

Vancouver 1—March 14. (Parade of China Party.)

Regina—March 18. (Young People's Demonstration.)

Regina—March 19 (Young People's Demonstration).

Winnipeg—March 20 (Winnipeg

Social Annual).

Edmonton—March 25. (Young People's Day Parade.)

Edmonton—March 25. (Council for Officers and Y. P. Locals.)

Edmonton 1—March 26. (Young People's Demonstration.)

Moose Jaw—March 27.

(Miss Sowton will accompany)

LIEUT.-COL. TURNER

(Territorial Secretary)

Calgary—Mar. 10-12 (China Party).

Regina—March 18.

Crashbrook—March 20.

Nelson—March 21.

Roseland—March 22.

Vancouver—March 25-26. (Social Annual.)

Calgary—March 28.

Portage—April 1-8.

Calgary—April 1-8.

Winnipeg 1—April 15-16.

Winnipeg 1—April 15-16.

TOUR OF CHINA PARTY

Calgary—March 10-12.

Vancouver 1—March 14.

BRIG. MCLEAN—Vancouver,

Mar. 10; Vancouver, Mar. 11 (P.

Day); Vancouver 1, Mar. 11

(Y. P. Demonstration).

MAJOR SIMS—Winnipeg (M.

SA) 1—March 24-26; Calgary (M.S.A.), Mar. 24-26; Calgary (M.S.A.), Mar. 26.

Staff-Captain Peacock—Vancouver

(Y. P. C.), Mar. 10-12; Victoria

Mar. 13-14; Regina (Y. P. Conventional), Mar. 15-16; Moose Jaw—

Mar. 20-22; Edmonton (Y. P.

Councils), Mar. 24-25; Winnippeg 1—April 1-8; Selkirk, April

2; Winnipeg 1, April 9-11.

Staff-Captain Goodwin—

London 1—April 10.

THE WAR CRY

OFFICIAL GAZETTE OF THE SALVATION ARMY IN CANADA AND NEWFOUNDLAND

International Headquarters: 101 Queen Victoria St., London, E.C.

William Booth Founder.

Canada East Headquarters:

James and Albert Streets, Toronto.

34th Year, No. 25.

Bramwell Booth, General.

TORONTO, MARCH 17, 1917.

W. J. Richards, Commissioner.

Price Two Cents

SETTLING THEIR DIFFERENCES AT THE MERCY SEAT—This is Reconciliation Week in the Winter Campaign. Are you at loggerheads with any one? If so, get things straightened out, and be ready for service in the saving of others. God cannot use you while you cherish a grudge,

Mrs. Commr. Richards ASSISTED BY MRS. COLONEL MCMILLAN

Presides at Young People's Annual Prize-giving at Ligar Street.

The expectations of the comrades of Ligar Street in regard to the Junior Annual were more than surpassed in many ways. First of all, by eight o'clock, the building was crowded with eager, expectant people, and when Mrs. Commissioner Richards marched onto the platform to the strains of "Man of Harlech" by the Band, there was a great burst of applause. To say that we were delighted to have Mrs. Richards with us is very inadequate, judging by the enthusiasm we received.

After the opening song, which was given out by Mr. Colonel McMillan, and sung by Mrs. Adjutant Mrs. Hart, Richards announced the first item, which was entitled "The Red Cross Dialogue." Almost as soon as the curtain was drawn on this item, the trumpet sounded to see ready their "Duty Drill." Followed in quick succession came the drums, drums, dialogues, drums, etc. Social mention should be made of the tambourine drill by six of the Guards and Leaders, the braiding of the colours by the Young People's Bible Class, and the drumming of "Don't Worry, It's in Your Yard," by Guards Beatrice Boys and Reina Moore. This latter item was voted the most popular of the evening.

On account of the rather length programme, it was nearly ten o'clock before the giving of the prizes began, but the young men and Young People were all wide awake and ready for their name to be called. Captain Leech called out the name of the child, and then handed the book to Mrs. Richards, who personally presented the prizes, while giving the name not on the book, but also the kindly word, which the children will, no doubt, treasure in their memories. Especially kind were Mrs. Richards' words to Mrs. Hart when presenting her with the Troop. The Sunday morning knee-drill competition was won by Candidate Edith Russell, and we had a very profitable time together.

Our new Chancellor (Major McAmmond) was with us for the day's meetings. Very good indeed, and we had a real, good day, though we might be said the grand finale of the Young People's Campaign took place in the afternoon, and embraced the whole category of a Young People's Corps. It commenced with the induction of the Infant son of Captain and Sister Anna, Adjutant Osborne, and the handing over of the child to the Cradle Roll. Next came the Enrolment of the Juniors as Junior Soldiers, following which the Young People were sworn in as Senior Soldiers, several of the late being Corps Cadets. Next came the inspection of the Life-Saving Scout and Guard Troops, and the presentation of the Guards' Flag.

At this juncture of the meeting, the Major spoke to the Guard and Scout Masters, and also briefly went over the Pledge and Badge and Motto. The Flag was then handed over to the standard-bearer—Corporal Violet Davis. Twenty-eight Guards were on parade for the inspection, and the dedication of two Candidates, and twenty-one Corps Cadets (all), with the exception of three, having applied since the Hamilton Young People's Councils this year). Thus the whole

ON BOARD TRAIN

Salvationists in Khaki Grasp Opportunity to Bless and Help the Boys.

The departure of the 128th (Buffs) Battalion from Toronto to Queen's Sergeant Barsby, made the Queen's City the poorer twelve Salvationists to various city Corps.

However, although facilities were not very favourable, they have proved themselves, thoroughly alive to the situation, and have given the opportunities of doing something, after the depression consequent upon the leaving of loved ones behind and the severing of the happy associations of years.

The first evening on the train writer was privileged to lead a number of men in the singing of the grand song contained among the selected "Special Campaign Song Book." The boys sang real heartily, and without doubt the hearts of all were inspired and their thoughts directed to the higher and more vital interests of life.

On Sunday morning an effort was made to preserve the continuity of the song book and the singing of these songs, and although the sequences were brief, yet by the ministry of many were kept alive. The words, music, and song, so frequently form a basis for conversation, and from an indulgence in those trivial pleasures that oft-times commands, with magnetic-like attraction, the attention and time of men.

Pray that the ministry of the faithful few may be blessed, and that the spirit of earnestness of the life of theerving that even in the most spiritually inclined of men will frequently assert itself.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S CAMPAIGN

Attended by Good Results—Enrolment of Soldiers and Corps Cadets.

The Life-Saving Scouts were in charge of the Saturday night meeting at Brantford on March 3, and did very well indeed. Urolo Wright, who is of great help to the Troop, gave a little talk.

The Sunday morning knee-drill competition was won by Candidate Edith Russell, and we had a very profitable time together.

Our new Chancellor (Major McAmmond) was with us for the day's meetings. Very good indeed, and we had a real, good day, though we might be said the grand finale of the Young People's Campaign took place in the afternoon, and embraced the whole category of a Young People's Corps. It commenced with the induction of the Infant son of Captain and Sister Anna, Adjutant Osborne, and the handing over of the child to the Cradle Roll. Next came the Enrolment of the Juniors as Junior Soldiers, following which the Young People were sworn in as Senior Soldiers, several of the late being Corps Cadets. Next came the inspection of the Life-Saving Scout and Guard Troops, and the presentation of the Guards' Flag.

At this juncture of the meeting, the Major spoke to the Guard and Scout Masters, and also briefly went over the Pledge and Badge and Motto. The Flag was then handed over to the standard-bearer—Corporal Violet Davis. Twenty-eight Guards were on parade for the inspection, and the dedication of two Candidates, and twenty-one Corps Cadets (all), with the exception of three, having applied since the Hamilton Young People's Councils this year). Thus the whole circle from Cradle Roll to Training College (practically) was covered, and as may be imagined, it was a most interesting meeting.

It is with deep regret that we have to record that Miss Adjutant Osborne is laid aside, being completely run down.

ARMY ARCHITECT

Conduct Interesting Meeting at Dovercourt—Mrs. Brigadier Adby Gives Out Prizes.

On Sunday, March 4th, we celebrated our Young People's Annual at Dovercourt; Brigadier and Mrs. Miller being in charge. Good Health testimonies were given at the morning meeting, and, after Mrs. Miller's heart-searing address on "The Tongue of God," we closed with a sincere and impressive conclusion service.

In the afternoon the children occupied the platform with the Young People's Locals. Young People Sergeant-Major Ham gave a brief account of the work carried on in the Junior Corps during the year, and then, in detail, described a Sunday Morning Directory Lesson, illustrating his remarks with the Army Flag and Crest. Next he had an application made for him to Boston. The Old, Old Story, and the collection was taken, which the band and the singing of the song, the thoughts and action of many were kept alive. The words, music, and song, so frequently form a basis for conversation, and from an indulgence in those trivial pleasures that oft-times commands, with magnetic-like attraction, the attention and time of men.

On Sunday morning an effort was made to preserve the continuity of the song book and the singing of these songs, and although the sequences were brief, yet by the ministry of many were kept alive. The words, music, and song, so frequently form a basis for conversation, and from an indulgence in those trivial pleasures that oft-times commands, with magnetic-like attraction, the attention and time of men.

Pray that the ministry of the faithful few may be blessed, and that the spirit of earnestness of the life of theerving that even in the most spiritually inclined of men will frequently assert itself.

OFFICER MADE A BLESSING

On Sunday, Feb. 18th, at Farnish Core, Captain Brown said farewell after a stay of thirteen months. He would never be forgotten here longer, and all was a great blessing.

Candidate Cadet, Candidate Edith Russell, and we had a very profitable time together.

In the course of his address, the Brigadier related many interesting and telling anecdotes. One of which was as follows: As a boy he attended three different schools, viz.: Never to touch intoxicating liquor, to learn a trade or profession, to buy a new dress for his mother with his very first earnings. All of these he carried out most faithfully, and the last-named was so well appreciated by his mother that she related the incident when on her death-bed many years after.

The rendition by "The Band of the Peasant Sinner" and the sweet singing of the Songsters in "Though Your Sons Be Slaves" added to the interest of the meetings.

On Monday night a splendid programme was given by the Young People; Mrs. Brigadier Adby presiding and giving out the prizes to the children. Handbar.

Nothing too great, nothing too small,

Simply for Jesus—that is all;

Every thought uttered, every deed done,

Nothing too great, nothing too small;

Simply for Jesus—that is all.

March 1, 1919

LIFE-SAVING GUARD TROOP

Organized at Wychwood—Picture Feature of the Annual.

Young People's Annual Sunday at Wychwood (Toronto) was a day rich with promise of advancement for the Young People. Work at that Corps, Adjutant and Mrs. Miller, and for Adjutant Urquhart is now doing some of the fruits of his till, attempting to organize a Life-Saving Guard Troop, and it brought great satisfaction to him to see fourteen Guards and their Leader committed to the cause.

Sunday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Major Church, who, with Mrs. Church, was conducting the week-end meetings (March 4th).

Sister Powis is the Guard Leader, Sister Dixon, Assistant Guard Leader, Sister Gandy, Captain Chapple, and Sister Birnbaum, Guard Secretary. Six Corps Cadets were also enrolled, and Sister Mrs. Major Church, as the Corps Cadet Commander.

The Junior attendances at the Director's Class, Company Meeting, and Salvation Meeting totalled one hundred and ten. Young People's Sergeant-Major Dean is heart and soul in the Junior Work, and keeps things all alive. A Sand Tray is to be started soon.

The Senior attendances at the Senior meetings were also very good. The Band, Songsters, and Soldiers worked with a will, and in a most energetic spirit, did their full share to bring blessing and welfare to the members.

At night the meeting wound up with a bright and happy testimony meeting.

On Monday night the children gave an excellent programme, one feature of which was the singing of the newly-arrived Guards. The prizes were presented by Adjutant Church, who acted as Chairman.

ADJUTANT AND MRS. BURTON

Conduct Councils—Chancellor and Wife Welcomed—Encouraging Reports on Various Departments.

Dundas was the scene of the Hamilton Division Officer's monthly Councils on Feb. 28th. Several officers were absent on account of sickness and other unavoidable circumstances; but nevertheless the present Adjutant Thomas Burton was definitely convalesced of his illness, and conducted a special session.

Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. Chandler in the meeting session, Adjutant Burton, having been appointed as Young People's Secretary for the East Ontario Division, received congratulations of their colleagues both the Adjutant and Mrs. Burton spoke words of farewell. We all wish them great success in their new work.

Captain Phillips, who is shortly leaving for service in China, paid us a visit at the Colonel's invitation. He remained for a short time before he again enjoyed the opportunity of meeting in a Council with other Officers.

The Junior attendances at the Director's Class, Company Meeting, and Salvation Meeting totalled one hundred and ten. Young People's Sergeant-Major Dean is heart and soul in the Junior Work, and keeps things all alive. A Sand Tray is to be started soon.

The Senior attendances at the Senior meetings were also very good. The Band, Songsters, and Soldiers worked with a will, and in a most energetic spirit, did their full share to bring blessing and welfare to the members.

At night the meeting wound up with a bright and happy testimony meeting.

On Monday night the children gave an excellent programme, one feature of which was the singing of the newly-arrived Guards. The prizes were presented by Adjutant Church, who acted as Chairman.

ADJUTANT AND MRS. BURTON

Conduct Councils—Chancellor and Wife Welcomed—Encouraging Reports on Various Departments.

Dundas was the scene of the Hamilton Division Officer's monthly Councils on Feb. 28th. Several officers were absent on account of sickness and other unavoidable circumstances; but nevertheless the present Adjutant Thomas Burton was definitely convalesced of his illness, and conducted a special session.

Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. Chandler in the meeting session, Adjutant Burton, having been appointed as Young People's Secretary for the East Ontario Division, received congratulations of their colleagues both the Adjutant and Mrs. Burton spoke words of farewell. We all wish them great success in their new work.

Captain Phillips, who is shortly leaving for service in China, paid us a visit at the Colonel's invitation. He remained for a short time before he again enjoyed the opportunity of meeting in a Council with other Officers.

The Junior attendances at the Senior meetings were also very good. The Band, Songsters, and Soldiers worked with a will, and in a most energetic spirit, did their full share to bring blessing and welfare to the members.

At night the meeting wound up with a bright and happy testimony meeting.

On Monday night the children gave an excellent programme, one feature of which was the singing of the newly-arrived Guards. The prizes were presented by Adjutant Church, who acted as Chairman.

ADJUTANT AND MRS. BURTON

Conduct Councils—Chancellor and Wife Welcomed—Encouraging Reports on Various Departments.

Dundas was the scene of the Hamilton Division Officer's monthly Councils on Feb. 28th. Several officers were absent on account of sickness and other unavoidable circumstances; but nevertheless the present Adjutant Thomas Burton was definitely convalesced of his illness, and conducted a special session.

Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. Chandler in the meeting session, Adjutant Burton, having been appointed as Young People's Secretary for the East Ontario Division, received congratulations of their colleagues both the Adjutant and Mrs. Burton spoke words of farewell. We all wish them great success in their new work.

March 17, 1919

THE WAR CRY

ADJUTANT BURTON

A SKETCH OF THE CAREER OF THE NEWLY-APPOINTED DIVISIONAL YOUNG PEOPLE'S SECRETARY FOR EAST ONTARIO

Dundas was the scene of the Hamilton Division Officer's monthly Councils on Feb. 28th. Several officers were absent on account of sickness and other unavoidable circumstances; but nevertheless the present Adjutant Thomas Burton was definitely convalesced of his illness, and conducted a special session.

Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. Chandler in the meeting session, Adjutant Burton, having been appointed as Young People's Secretary for the East Ontario Division, received congratulations of their colleagues both the Adjutant and Mrs. Burton spoke words of farewell. We all wish them great success in their new work.

Captain Phillips, who is shortly leaving for service in China, paid us a visit at the Colonel's invitation. He remained for a short time before he again enjoyed the opportunity of meeting in a Council with other Officers.

The Junior attendances at the Senior meetings were also very good. The Band, Songsters, and Soldiers worked with a will, and in a most energetic spirit, did their full share to bring blessing and welfare to the members.

At night the meeting wound up with a bright and happy testimony meeting.

On Monday night the children gave an excellent programme, one feature of which was the singing of the newly-arrived Guards. The prizes were presented by Adjutant Church, who acted as Chairman.

ADJUTANT AND MRS. BURTON

Conduct Councils—Chancellor and Wife Welcomed—Encouraging Reports on Various Departments.

Dundas was the scene of the Hamilton Division Officer's monthly Councils on Feb. 28th. Several officers were absent on account of sickness and other unavoidable circumstances; but nevertheless the present Adjutant Thomas Burton was definitely convalesced of his illness, and conducted a special session.

Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. Chandler in the meeting session, Adjutant Burton, having been appointed as Young People's Secretary for the East Ontario Division, received congratulations of their colleagues both the Adjutant and Mrs. Burton spoke words of farewell. We all wish them great success in their new work.

Captain Phillips, who is shortly leaving for service in China, paid us a visit at the Colonel's invitation. He remained for a short time before he again enjoyed the opportunity of meeting in a Council with other Officers.

The Junior attendances at the Senior meetings were also very good. The Band, Songsters, and Soldiers worked with a will, and in a most energetic spirit, did their full share to bring blessing and welfare to the members.

At night the meeting wound up with a bright and happy testimony meeting.

On Monday night the children gave an excellent programme, one feature of which was the singing of the newly-arrived Guards. The prizes were presented by Adjutant Church, who acted as Chairman.

ADJUTANT AND MRS. BURTON

Conduct Councils—Chancellor and Wife Welcomed—Encouraging Reports on Various Departments.

Dundas was the scene of the Hamilton Division Officer's monthly Councils on Feb. 28th. Several officers were absent on account of sickness and other unavoidable circumstances; but nevertheless the present Adjutant Thomas Burton was definitely convalesced of his illness, and conducted a special session.

Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. Chandler in the meeting session, Adjutant Burton, having been appointed as Young People's Secretary for the East Ontario Division, received congratulations of their colleagues both the Adjutant and Mrs. Burton spoke words of farewell. We all wish them great success in their new work.

Captain Phillips, who is shortly leaving for service in China, paid us a visit at the Colonel's invitation. He remained for a short time before he again enjoyed the opportunity of meeting in a Council with other Officers.

The Junior attendances at the Senior meetings were also very good. The Band, Songsters, and Soldiers worked with a will, and in a most energetic spirit, did their full share to bring blessing and welfare to the members.

At night the meeting wound up with a bright and happy testimony meeting.

On Monday night the children gave an excellent programme, one feature of which was the singing of the newly-arrived Guards. The prizes were presented by Adjutant Church, who acted as Chairman.

ADJUTANT AND MRS. BURTON

Conduct Councils—Chancellor and Wife Welcomed—Encouraging Reports on Various Departments.

Dundas was the scene of the Hamilton Division Officer's monthly Councils on Feb. 28th. Several officers were absent on account of sickness and other unavoidable circumstances; but nevertheless the present Adjutant Thomas Burton was definitely convalesced of his illness, and conducted a special session.

Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. Chandler in the meeting session, Adjutant Burton, having been appointed as Young People's Secretary for the East Ontario Division, received congratulations of their colleagues both the Adjutant and Mrs. Burton spoke words of farewell. We all wish them great success in their new work.

MAJOR BARR

Illustrates Corps Work by Blackboard—Ten Souls.

We have been favoured at Yarmouth, N.S., with another visit from our Divisional Commander (Major Barr). On Saturday night the Major met a newly-organized Life-Saving Guard at Stratford. Following this he conducted a special meeting with the Soldiers and Young People, which proved a great blessing. By means of a blackboard he greatly enlightened the men of every branch of the Corps Work, from the Guards to the Band.

On Sunday the Major put in a full day, starting at 7 a.m. A blessed time was experienced in the Holiness meeting; one commune reciting secretings herself to God.

The Major also visited the Community Hall, and spoke to the children. Our Major has a record—a son—one there being sixty-five present.

During the afternoon meeting the baby son of Captain and Mrs. Davis was dedicated to God, and a sister who was converted during the Major's last visit was enrolled as a Soldier.

We had a great crowd at night, taking for his subject, "The Great Appeal," spoke very powerfully. God was near, and in the prayer meeting three Sections and the entire Corps gave thanks to God.

One sister, a backslighter for ten years, has since repented to the great joy she possesses since being restored to God's favour.

A Sunbeam Choir, composed of a number of young girls, sang on the afternoon and night meeting. We are looking for great time during the month of March.—Simon Peters.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SECY., HAS BUSY TIME—BOYS' BAND PLAYS

Brigadier Bettridge (the Young People's Secretary) visited Stratford on March 2nd, and conducted three meetings. On the second night he spoke to the children, illustrating his remarks with lantern views.

At seven o'clock the Brigadier met the Company Guards and outlined new methods of teaching, and gave those present the benefit of his wide experience in the work of the Young People.

A public meeting followed, in which the general work of the Army was spoken of, and hints given as to how to interest the general public in the Young People's Work. A feature of the general meeting was the singing of the hymns by the Boys' Band of nine pieces. The young musicians acquitted themselves very well.

Brigadier Bettridge was well pleased with the manner in which the Work is being carried on in the Stratford. During the evening the child of Young People's Sergeant-Major Flieker was dedicated.

At the Hamilton (Bermuda) Adjutant and Mrs. Burton went to Hamilton (Ontario), where they have had charge of the No. I. Corps for the past year and a half. During that time, in spite of the fact that so many Bandmen and others have joined the Corps, the band increased splendidly, and five names have been added to the Roll of Honour. The Young People's Band has also been formed.

In recent meetings, when Brigadier Bettridge visited Rhodes Avenue, he found many young boys and girls, and the young children, the former, were all singing "Jesus, I Love You." The young people were all singing "Jesus, I Love You." The young children, the former, were all singing "Jesus, I Love You." The young children, the former, were all singing "Jesus, I Love You."

"SAVE ONE SOUL"

THE WAR CRY

THE AIM of all our efforts on behalf of children and Young People is to lead them to make a definite surrender of themselves to our Heavenly King.

The sense of mere head knowledge without heart experience was keenly felt by our beloved Founder, and this possibly accounted for the fact that for many years all efforts of the young were directed to the study of the Word of God. In later years, when classes were formed and the work organized along present lines, the terms Company Meeting and Company Guard were made use of instead of the more familiar terms of Sunday School. The Teacher should lead, and the teacher of instruction should be led, with too much prominence, to the detriment of the Spiritual.

"Nothing," says our late General, "could be more dreadful than that the splendid organization of 'The Army' should be used to talk about children, and the meaning and value of the Bible, without securing their conversion to God." Hence we have our Decision Sundays, Young People's Days, Salvation meetings for the young etc., when direct effort is made, collectively and individually, to bring them to decide for Christ.

Having thus emphasized the fact that the ultimate aim in all our effort is the soul's salvation, I would now like to impress with all earnestness, the fact that there is need for instruction in the truth of the Bible, and the Company Meeting, with its classes review, etc., is held, and the we seek to bless and encourage all who may be present each week, and to get others to become members of the same.—E. Bettidge, Secy.

Ensign, and Mrs. Ursaki, with twenty-five members of the Guelph Home League recently visited Galt and gave a most interesting programme. The Ensign had some splendid talent with him, and among those who took part, many comes from the globe were represented.

A native of Bermuda, Mr. George S. Williams, in Guelph, a returned missionary from India, a former missionary from Alaska, and natives of Newfoundland, Prince Edward Island, and Nova Scotia were all called upon for addresses.

The Home League at Guelph is progressing very favourably and has forty-five energetic members. A number of articles of clothing are being made, and in a short time a Sale of Work will be presented, and give a splendid address on "How a wise woman built her home"; also Mrs. Adjutant Tyndall gave an address on "Home Nursing" and Mrs. Adjutant Adams spoke on "A Leaf Out of Her Book". We appreciate the efforts of each visitor and we were given only a blessing while we listened to them, but will be of inspiration in days to come. Mrs. Colonel Jacobs, our worthy Secretary, and Mrs. T. Greenaway, the Treasurer, are deeply interested in the movement and believe it is not only a great blessing to each member, but to the Corps also.—Interested.

* * *

Since we started the Home League at Yorkville just over two months ago, we have made good progress. Besides enrolling twenty-eight members, we have been successful in getting new families and distribute the same, and visit the sick, either at their homes, or in the hospitals, and have been able to help them in many and varied ways. Mrs. Brigadier Bell visited us on Jan. 8th, and gave a talk on "Home Nursing", which was very helpful and practical. Also on Thursday, Feb. 15th, Mrs. Adjutant Tyndall came and gave a talk on "Nursing". This was most helpful and interesting. Mrs. Tyndall has a great love for nursing and giving aid and such in The Army in other countries. This made it all the more interesting. We have several members who are saved, and one a month we have a spiritual meeting, and all the members of the corps are welcome. The Teacher (Mrs. Hardinge) is a great helper, and with the writer, Beware of "Mrs. Have-You-Heard!" Ill-natured gossip, slander, and backbiting are most effective hindrances of soul-saving work. "Don't get in the devil's traps in this direction. A clean heart means a clean tongue."

Training Company Guards

[A paper read at the recent Winnipeg Young People's Congress by Brigadier Taylor, Divisional Commander for Manitoba, Canada West.]

Company Manual issued specially for that purpose.

The Bible is not taught in our Public Schools, and generally speaking, it is read only by those less intelligent. What a responsibility, therefore, rests upon The Army for teaching in the most helpful manner possible the Word of God!

The public ministry of Jesus was largely made up of teaching, and in 1838, we find it is placed before even the working of miracles. A mind well stored with God's truth is fortified and the heart strengthened to meet the onslaughts of the enemy. David says:

"I have hid in my heart that I might not sin against Thee." Jesus won and conquered the enemy in His great wilderness temptation, by using as His weapon the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God.

The work for "more Company Guards, and greater efficiency" on the part of those we have, is becoming more and more apparent, and will increase as time goes on. Why?

It is feared, undertaken this work without sufficient preparation. Coming into the Company with but little or no real preparation.

On the other hand, many are holding back from taking up this work because of their lack of Bible knowledge and a feeling of unfitness to teach others. A company manual, however, People's Work is proposed for want of Company Guards, and many of the older children drift away to other Sunday Schools and are lost to The Army. Just as they should be strengthening our fighting force by being passed on to the next division.

The remedy for both these evils is a properly conducted Preparation Class, which should be held weekly at every Corps. Many who now shrink from becoming Company Guards would gladly take up the work if it were of such help as would be afforded by a Preparation Class, and many who are now teaching would do their work more effectively.

If children find their Company Leaders' inaccuracy on some point in the lesson they are bound to put less value on anything else they may attempt to teach or tell them.

The Preparation Class gives a fine opportunity for a company to change, and learning better how to teach it to others; and the live Corps Officers and Young People's Sergeant-Majors will ever be trying to make their Company Guards more and more efficient in the art of teaching in their Companies so that they themselves have learned on the lesson.

On Feb. 12th Mrs. Main-Baird organized the Home League at Guelph, with a membership of thirteen members. On Feb. 19th five new members came along and joined us, and on Feb. 26th further others got membership cards; and now we total twenty-four, and still more are following. A full band is elected and at regular meeting nights the Treasurer (Mrs. Newcombe) passes along the plate, Newcombe passes along the plate, with good results, and they said of our Master, "We're here to stay" and the Lord and those in the majority shaved us from our feet, pushing, hustling, driving us down, till we were rolled from the top to the bottom of the hill. The drinking booth had got thoroughly muddled.

"I thought I was gone then, sure-brained, bleeding, mangled, choking with dust, clothing all torn, our ring broken in and scattered four times. I was nearly dead. I was not frightened, but I settled up all my accounts and paid for my flight, thought it was all over for the fortious mob of thousands of people.

"But just in the nick of time, the captain of the regiments who had invited us, came charging up on horseback, and, leaping down off his steed, shouting, 'Come with me!' The first man that moved—"Follow him through!" It acted like magic—the crowd were scared, like a lot of crows, and fell back for a moment.

"Captain—Ninth Regiment—take the field!" he shouted, and at this word of command they formed a double-quick and joined hands. Then he called The Army to come with him in the ring, and thankful enough we were. Now hold your meeting within the ring, he told us."

"The first thing we may be sure, was to fall on our knees and thank God for the deliverance; and a sister, with her dress torn into threads, soloed—

"Palms of victory, palms of victory, crowns of glory we shall wear."

"The effect was something indescribable. We stood covered with blood and dirt, and lay on the ground with exhaustion. You could see the reaction upon the crowd. We watched a reporter taking notes; his eyes would keep filling up with tears, dropping on his book, till at last he said, 'I can't write, I can't write.' The man asked if he might sit at the table, and he said, 'Yes, go ahead.' Friends," he said, "in a tone of deep emotion, 'I came here in an inner dungeon of a foul Eastern prison, (a) I feel in the stocks; (b) I am bleeding from recent scourges.

Maps of Palestine in the time of Christ and earlier periods of Biblical history will be included if such maps may be secured through the Trade Department, and every Corps should have one at least. To impress the lesson upon the mind, the difficulty is getting the Young People to Local leaders, after this purpose has been overcome, at some Corps, by having it the same night (but before) the Soldier meeting, and in others, where this plan was unworkable, the lesson must be topic of the public weekly meeting with very interesting results. Any method to get the Company Guards to familiarize themselves with the lesson before hand is better than nothing; but a whole evening spent on the lesson is a good investment of time.

The remedy for both these evils is a properly conducted Preparation Class, which should be held weekly at every Corps. Many who now shrink from becoming Company Guards would gladly take up the work if it were of such help as would be afforded by a Preparation Class, and many who are now teaching would do their work more effectively.

If children find their Company Leaders' inaccuracy on some point in the lesson they are bound to put less value on anything else they may attempt to teach or tell them.

The Preparation Class gives a fine opportunity for a company to change, and learning better how to teach it to others; and the live Corps Officers and Young People's Sergeant-Majors will ever be trying to make their Company Guards more and more efficient in the art of teaching in their Companies so that they themselves have learned on the lesson.

The trouble began general. A lot of the boys had been drinking, and began to cry out against us, not "Away with Uilm," and they said of our Master, "We're here to stay" and the Lord and those in the majority shaved us from our feet, pushing, hustling, driving us down, till we were rolled from the top to the bottom of the hill. The drinking booth had got thoroughly muddled.

"I thought I was gone then, sure-brained, bleeding, mangled, choking with dust, clothing all torn, our ring broken in and scattered four times. I was nearly dead. I was not frightened, but I settled up all my accounts and paid for my flight, thought it was all over for the fortious mob of thousands of people.

"But just in the nick of time, the captain of the regiments who had invited us, came charging up on horseback, and, leaping down off his steed, shouting, 'Come with me!' The first man that moved—"Follow him through!" It acted like magic—the crowd were scared, like a lot of crows, and fell back for a moment.

"Captain—Ninth Regiment—take the field!" he shouted, and at this word of command they formed a double-quick and joined hands. Then he called The Army to come with him in the ring, and thankful enough we were. Now hold your meeting within the ring, he told us."

"The first thing we may be sure, was to fall on our knees and thank God for the deliverance; and a sister, with her dress torn into threads, soloed—

"Palms of victory, palms of victory, crowns of glory we shall wear."

"The effect was something indescribable. We stood covered with blood and dirt, and lay on the ground with exhaustion. You could see the reaction upon the crowd. We watched a reporter taking notes; his eyes would keep filling up with tears, dropping on his book, till at last he said, 'I can't write, I can't write.'

The man asked if he might sit at the table, and he said, 'Yes, go ahead.'

Friends," he said, "in a tone of deep emotion, 'I came here in an inner dungeon of a foul Eastern prison, (a) I feel in the stocks; (b) I am bleeding from recent scourges.

Maps of Palestine in the time of Christ and earlier periods of Biblical history will be included if such maps may be secured through the Trade Department, and every Corps should have one at least. To impress the lesson upon the mind, the difficulty is getting the Young People to Local leaders, after this purpose has been overcome, at some Corps, by having it the same night (but before) the Soldier meeting, and in others, where this plan was unworkable, the lesson must be topic of the public weekly meeting with very interesting results. Any method to get the Company Guards to familiarize themselves with the lesson before hand is better than nothing; but a whole evening spent on the lesson is a good investment of time.

The remedy for both these evils is a properly conducted Preparation Class, which should be held weekly at every Corps. Many who now shrink from becoming Company Guards would gladly take up the work if it were of such help as would be afforded by a Preparation Class, and many who are now teaching would do their work more effectively.

If children find their Company Leaders' inaccuracy on some point in the lesson they are bound to put less value on anything else they may attempt to teach or tell them.

The Preparation Class gives a fine opportunity for a company to change, and learning better how to teach it to others; and the live Corps Officers and Young People's Sergeant-Majors will ever be trying to make their Company Guards more and more efficient in the art of teaching in their Companies so that they themselves have learned on the lesson.

The trouble began general. A lot of the boys had been drinking, and began to cry out against us, not "Away with Uilm," and they said of our Master, "We're here to stay" and the Lord and those in the majority shaved us from our feet, pushing, hustling, driving us down, till we were rolled from the top to the bottom of the hill. The drinking booth had got thoroughly muddled.

"I thought I was gone then, sure-brained, bleeding, mangled, choking with dust, clothing all torn, our ring broken in and scattered four times. I was nearly dead. I was not frightened, but I settled up all my accounts and paid for my flight, thought it was all over for the fortious mob of thousands of people.

"But just in the nick of time, the captain of the regiments who had invited us, came charging up on horseback, and, leaping down off his steed, shouting, 'Come with me!' The first man that moved—"Follow him through!" It acted like magic—the crowd were scared, like a lot of crows, and fell back for a moment.

"Captain—Ninth Regiment—take the field!" he shouted, and at this word of command they formed a double-quick and joined hands. Then he called The Army to come with him in the ring, and thankful enough we were. Now hold your meeting within the ring, he told us."

"The first thing we may be sure, was to fall on our knees and thank God for the deliverance; and a sister, with her dress torn into threads, soloed—

"Palms of victory, palms of victory, crowns of glory we shall wear."

"The effect was something indescribable. We stood covered with blood and dirt, and lay on the ground with exhaustion. You could see the reaction upon the crowd. We watched a reporter taking notes; his eyes would keep filling up with tears, dropping on his book, till at last he said, 'I can't write, I can't write.'

The man asked if he might sit at the table, and he said, 'Yes, go ahead.'

Friends," he said, "in a tone of deep emotion, 'I came here in an inner dungeon of a foul Eastern prison, (a) I feel in the stocks; (b) I am bleeding from recent scourges.

Maps of Palestine in the time of Christ and earlier periods of Biblical history will be included if such maps may be secured through the Trade Department, and every Corps should have one at least. To impress the lesson upon the mind, the difficulty is getting the Young People to Local leaders, after this purpose has been overcome, at some Corps, by having it the same night (but before) the Soldier meeting, and in others, where this plan was unworkable, the lesson must be topic of the public weekly meeting with very interesting results. Any method to get the Company Guards to familiarize themselves with the lesson before hand is better than nothing; but a whole evening spent on the lesson is a good investment of time.

The remedy for both these evils is a properly conducted Preparation Class, which should be held weekly at every Corps. Many who now shrink from becoming Company Guards would gladly take up the work if it were of such help as would be afforded by a Preparation Class, and many who are now teaching would do their work more effectively.

If children find their Company Leaders' inaccuracy on some point in the lesson they are bound to put less value on anything else they may attempt to teach or tell them.

The Preparation Class gives a fine opportunity for a company to change, and learning better how to teach it to others; and the live Corps Officers and Young People's Sergeant-Majors will ever be trying to make their Company Guards more and more efficient in the art of teaching in their Companies so that they themselves have learned on the lesson.

The trouble began general. A lot of the boys had been drinking, and began to cry out against us, not "Away with Uilm," and they said of our Master, "We're here to stay" and the Lord and those in the majority shaved us from our feet, pushing, hustling, driving us down, till we were rolled from the top to the bottom of the hill. The drinking booth had got thoroughly muddled.

"I thought I was gone then, sure-brained, bleeding, mangled, choking with dust, clothing all torn, our ring broken in and scattered four times. I was nearly dead. I was not frightened, but I settled up all my accounts and paid for my flight, thought it was all over for the fortious mob of thousands of people.

"But just in the nick of time, the captain of the regiments who had invited us, came charging up on horseback, and, leaping down off his steed, shouting, 'Come with me!' The first man that moved—"Follow him through!" It acted like magic—the crowd were scared, like a lot of crows, and fell back for a moment.

"Captain—Ninth Regiment—take the field!" he shouted, and at this word of command they formed a double-quick and joined hands. Then he called The Army to come with him in the ring, and thankful enough we were. Now hold your meeting within the ring, he told us."

"The first thing we may be sure, was to fall on our knees and thank God for the deliverance; and a sister, with her dress torn into threads, soloed—

"Palms of victory, palms of victory, crowns of glory we shall wear."

"The effect was something indescribable. We stood covered with blood and dirt, and lay on the ground with exhaustion. You could see the reaction upon the crowd. We watched a reporter taking notes; his eyes would keep filling up with tears, dropping on his book, till at last he said, 'I can't write, I can't write.'

The man asked if he might sit at the table, and he said, 'Yes, go ahead.'

Friends," he said, "in a tone of deep emotion, 'I came here in an inner dungeon of a foul Eastern prison, (a) I feel in the stocks; (b) I am bleeding from recent scourges.

Maps of Palestine in the time of Christ and earlier periods of Biblical history will be included if such maps may be secured through the Trade Department, and every Corps should have one at least. To impress the lesson upon the mind, the difficulty is getting the Young People to Local leaders, after this purpose has been overcome, at some Corps, by having it the same night (but before) the Soldier meeting, and in others, where this plan was unworkable, the lesson must be topic of the public weekly meeting with very interesting results. Any method to get the Company Guards to familiarize themselves with the lesson before hand is better than nothing; but a whole evening spent on the lesson is a good investment of time.

The remedy for both these evils is a properly conducted Preparation Class, which should be held weekly at every Corps. Many who now shrink from becoming Company Guards would gladly take up the work if it were of such help as would be afforded by a Preparation Class, and many who are now teaching would do their work more effectively.

If children find their Company Leaders' inaccuracy on some point in the lesson they are bound to put less value on anything else they may attempt to teach or tell them.

The Preparation Class gives a fine opportunity for a company to change, and learning better how to teach it to others; and the live Corps Officers and Young People's Sergeant-Majors will ever be trying to make their Company Guards more and more efficient in the art of teaching in their Companies so that they themselves have learned on the lesson.

The trouble began general. A lot of the boys had been drinking, and began to cry out against us, not "Away with Uilm," and they said of our Master, "We're here to stay" and the Lord and those in the majority shaved us from our feet, pushing, hustling, driving us down, till we were rolled from the top to the bottom of the hill. The drinking booth had got thoroughly muddled.

"I thought I was gone then, sure-brained, bleeding, mangled, choking with dust, clothing all torn, our ring broken in and scattered four times. I was nearly dead. I was not frightened, but I settled up all my accounts and paid for my flight, thought it was all over for the fortious mob of thousands of people.

"But just in the nick of time, the captain of the regiments who had invited us, came charging up on horseback, and, leaping down off his steed, shouting, 'Come with me!' The first man that moved—"Follow him through!" It acted like magic—the crowd were scared, like a lot of crows, and fell back for a moment.

"Captain—Ninth Regiment—take the field!" he shouted, and at this word of command they formed a double-quick and joined hands. Then he called The Army to come with him in the ring, and thankful enough we were. Now hold your meeting within the ring, he told us."

"The first thing we may be sure, was to fall on our knees and thank God for the deliverance; and a sister, with her dress torn into threads, soloed—

"Palms of victory, palms of victory, crowns of glory we shall wear."

"The effect was something indescribable. We stood covered with blood and dirt, and lay on the ground with exhaustion. You could see the reaction upon the crowd. We watched a reporter taking notes; his eyes would keep filling up with tears, dropping on his book, till at last he said, 'I can't write, I can't write.'

The man asked if he might sit at the table, and he said, 'Yes, go ahead.'

Friends," he said, "in a tone of deep emotion, 'I came here in an inner dungeon of a foul Eastern prison, (a) I feel in the stocks; (b) I am bleeding from recent scourges.

Maps of Palestine in the time of Christ and earlier periods of Biblical history will be included if such maps may be secured through the Trade Department, and every Corps should have one at least. To impress the lesson upon the mind, the difficulty is getting the Young People to Local leaders, after this purpose has been overcome, at some Corps, by having it the same night (but before) the Soldier meeting, and in others, where this plan was unworkable, the lesson must be topic of the public weekly meeting with very interesting results. Any method to get the Company Guards to familiarize themselves with the lesson before hand is better than nothing; but a whole evening spent on the lesson is a good investment of time.

The remedy for both these evils is a properly conducted Preparation Class, which should be held weekly at every Corps. Many who now shrink from becoming Company Guards would gladly take up the work if it were of such help as would be afforded by a Preparation Class, and many who are now teaching would do their work more effectively.

If children find their Company Leaders' inaccuracy on some point in the lesson they are bound to put less value on anything else they may attempt to teach or tell them.

The Preparation Class gives a fine opportunity for a company to change, and learning better how to teach it to others; and the live Corps Officers and Young People's Sergeant-Majors will ever be trying to make their Company Guards more and more efficient in the art of teaching in their Companies so that they themselves have learned on the lesson.

The trouble began general. A lot of the boys had been drinking, and began to cry out against us, not "Away with Uilm," and they said of our Master, "We're here to stay" and the Lord and those in the majority shaved us from our feet, pushing, hustling, driving us down, till we were rolled from the top to the bottom of the hill. The drinking booth had got thoroughly muddled.

"I thought I was gone then, sure-brained, bleeding, mangled, choking with dust, clothing all torn, our ring broken in and scattered four times. I was nearly dead. I was not frightened, but I settled up all my accounts and paid for my flight, thought it was all over for the fortious mob of thousands of people.

"But just in the nick of time, the captain of the regiments who had invited us, came charging up on horseback, and, leaping down off his steed, shouting, 'Come with me!' The first man that moved—"Follow him through!" It acted like magic—the crowd were scared, like a lot of crows, and fell back for a moment.

"Captain—Ninth Regiment—take the field!" he shouted, and at this word of command they formed a double-quick and joined hands. Then he called The Army to come with him in the ring, and thankful enough we were. Now hold your meeting within the ring, he told us."

"The first thing we may be sure, was to fall on our knees and thank God for the deliverance; and a sister, with her dress torn into threads, soloed—

"Palms of victory, palms of victory, crowns of glory we shall wear."

"The effect was something indescribable. We stood covered with blood and dirt, and lay on the ground with exhaustion. You could see the reaction upon the crowd. We watched a reporter taking notes; his eyes would keep filling up with tears, dropping on his book, till at last he said, 'I can't write, I can't write.'

The man asked if he might sit at the table, and he said, 'Yes, go ahead.'

Friends," he said, "in a tone of deep emotion, 'I came here in an inner dungeon of a foul Eastern prison, (a) I feel in the stocks; (b) I am bleeding from recent scourges.

Maps of Palestine in the time of Christ and earlier periods of Biblical history will be included if such maps may be secured through the Trade Department, and every Corps should have one at least. To impress the lesson upon the mind, the difficulty is getting the Young People to Local leaders, after this purpose has been overcome, at some Corps, by having it the same night (but before) the Soldier meeting, and in others, where this plan was unworkable, the lesson must be topic of the public weekly meeting with very interesting results. Any method to get the Company Guards to familiarize themselves with the lesson before hand is better than nothing; but a whole evening spent on the lesson is a good investment of time.

The remedy for both these evils is a properly conducted Preparation Class, which should be held weekly at every Corps. Many who now shrink from becoming Company Guards would gladly take up the work if it were of such help as would be afforded by a Preparation Class, and many who are now teaching would do their work more effectively.

If children find their Company Leaders' inaccuracy on some point in the lesson they are bound to put less value on anything else they may attempt to teach or tell them.

The Preparation Class gives a fine opportunity for a company to change, and learning better how to teach it to others; and the live Corps Officers and Young People's Sergeant-Majors will ever be trying to make their Company Guards more and more efficient in the art of teaching in their Companies so that they themselves have learned on the lesson.

The trouble began general. A lot of the boys had been drinking, and began to cry out against us, not "Away with Uilm," and they said of our Master, "We're here to stay" and the Lord and those in the majority shaved us from our feet, pushing, hustling, driving us down, till we were rolled from the top to the bottom of the hill. The drinking booth had got thoroughly muddled.

"I thought I was gone then, sure-brained, bleeding, mangled, choking with dust, clothing all torn, our ring broken in and scattered four times. I was nearly dead. I was not frightened, but I settled up all my accounts and paid for my flight, thought it was all over for the fortious mob of thousands of people.

"But just in the nick of time, the captain of the regiments who had invited us, came charging up on horseback, and, leaping down off his steed, shouting, 'Come with me!' The first man that moved—"Follow him through!" It acted like magic—the crowd were scared, like a lot of crows, and fell back for a moment.

"Captain—Ninth Regiment—take the field!" he shouted, and at this word of command they formed a double-quick and joined hands. Then he called The Army to come with him in the ring, and thankful enough we were. Now hold your meeting within the ring, he told us."

"The first thing we may be sure, was to fall on our knees and thank God for the deliverance; and a sister, with her dress torn into threads, soloed—

"Palms of victory, palms of victory, crowns of glory we shall wear."

"The effect was something indescribable. We stood covered with blood and dirt, and lay on the ground with exhaustion. You could see the reaction upon the crowd. We watched a reporter taking notes; his eyes would keep filling up with tears, dropping on his book, till at last he said, 'I can't write, I can't write.'

The man asked if he might sit at the table, and he said, 'Yes, go ahead.'

Friends," he said, "in a tone of deep emotion, 'I came here in an inner dungeon of a foul Eastern prison, (a) I feel in the stocks; (b) I am bleeding from recent scourges.

Maps of Palestine in the time of Christ and earlier periods of Biblical history will be included if such maps may be secured through the Trade Department, and every Corps should have one at least. To impress the lesson upon the mind, the difficulty is getting the Young People to Local leaders, after this purpose has been overcome, at some Corps, by having it the same night (but before) the Soldier meeting, and in others, where this plan was unworkable, the lesson must be topic of the public weekly meeting with very interesting results. Any method to get the Company Guards to familiarize themselves with the lesson before hand is better than nothing; but a whole evening spent on the lesson is a good investment of time.

The remedy for both these evils is a properly conducted Preparation Class, which should be held weekly at every Corps. Many who now shrink from becoming Company Guards would gladly take up the work if it were of such help as would be afforded by a Preparation Class, and many who are now teaching would do their work more effectively.

If children find their Company Leaders' inaccuracy on some point in the lesson they are bound to put less value on anything else they may attempt to teach or tell them.

The Preparation Class gives a fine opportunity for a company to change, and learning better how to teach it to others; and the live Corps Officers and Young People's Sergeant-Majors will ever be trying to make their Company Guards more and more efficient in the art of teaching in their Companies so that they themselves have learned on the lesson.

The trouble began general. A lot of the boys had been drinking, and began to cry out against us, not "Away with Uilm," and they said of our Master, "We're here to stay" and the Lord and those in the majority shaved us from our feet, pushing, hustling, driving us down, till we were rolled from the top to the bottom of the hill. The drinking booth had got thoroughly muddled.

"I thought I was gone then, sure-brained, bleeding, mangled, choking with dust, clothing all torn, our ring broken in and scattered four times. I was nearly dead. I was not frightened, but I settled up all my accounts and paid for my flight, thought it was all over for the fortious mob of thousands of people.

"But just in the nick of time, the captain of the regiments who had invited us, came charging up on horseback, and, leaping down off his steed, shouting, 'Come with me!' The first man that moved—"Follow him through!" It acted like magic—the crowd were

Gazette

Promotions:
Captain Albert J. Roberts, of Hants Harbour, N.S., to be Ensign.
Lieutenant Ernest Esson (Chance Harbour, N.S.), to be Captain.
W. J. RICHARDS, Commissioner.

WAR CRY

Printed for The Salvation Army in Canada, Newfoundland, Bermuda, and Alaska, by The Salvation Army Printing House, 16 Albert Street, Toronto.

RECONCILIATION

Evry, spite, hated, jealous—they are ugly words, and in their most flagrant and violent forms of expression in people's lives we shudder at them. But how carefully we need to guard our own hearts from the first beginning of these things. What have been wrought in the lives of individuals and in Corps through these enemies being allowed to get a footing!

The spirit which prompts us to say, "I'll pay him out for that"; "I'll put a spoke in his wheel"; "I'll get even with him"; is not the blessed Spirit of God. It is an evil spirit which should be resisted. If yielded to, it grows from a feeble "spite to a sulky revenge, and perhaps to a raging flood of vindictiveness which would destroy all in its path. It leads to the prison door and the gallows here; it leads to the blockades of the hereafter.

Oh, let us learn to forgive one another. Here is a splendid illustration of how differences may be settled: A young man who had been insulted by another, was resolved to take his revenge. He confided his plan to a friend, an old man. The friend tried his best to change the young man's purpose, but the poison of anger had so entered the young man's soul that he would not be swayed. "You are determined to be revenged—well, I will say nothing further against it. But let us pray together before we separate."

They knelt down and the old man prayed: "O Lord, if this man be allowed to do his evil, dear Heavenly Father, to keep this young man under Thy protecting care. He is in open rebellion. He will have his own revenge. And Thou hast said in Thy Word, 'Avenge not yourselves, but give place unto the wrath of God.' Vengeance belongeth unto Me; I will recompense, said the Lord. He will not heed Thy command, but will take vengeance into his own hands. Now, dear Lord, since this man has gone to do his evil, let me go as he wills, but comfort me, dear Lord, for I am much grieved over the young man—I love him and my soul grieves over the course he is taking. Thus the old man prayed, awaiting the return of his friend.

He too began to pray. He prayed for pardon, and besought God to drive away from his heart the poison of anger and hatred and to give him a heart of love and forgiveness. The prayer was heard and the two friends were reconciled.

This is Reconciliation Week in the Winter Campaign. Is there anything to be confessed to a comrade? As you hope to be forgiven yourself, forgive others, and seek their forgiveness; if you have sinned against them, and are right in line for some useful work for God. He wants vessels that are "sanctified and meet for the Master's use." Resolve to be at this at costs. At the foot of the Cross there can be no room for malice or ill-temper.

The Boys at the Front

Are in need of Rest Huts, where they can find material comfort and spiritual help when they come from the trenches.

THE GENERAL

Has decided to erect immediately a number of Huts for the Canadian and Newfoundland troops in France, and has asked the Canadian Territory to help defray the cost of this extension.

COMMISSIONER RICHARDS

Relying on the generosity of his people and of Army friends, has promised a minimum of

Five Thousand Dollars

And now appeals for subscriptions to meet this need. Give as much as you are able to assist in caring for the temporal comfort and spiritual needs of our lads on the firing-line.

THE REST "HUTS"

Are in reality homes away from home, where weary and lonely men can find warm friends in The Army Officers. Adjutant Mary Booth says: "Some of our Huts are now organized like Corps. They have their Bands, Local Officers, Bible Classes, Holiness Meetings, Converts' Meetings, Swearing-in of Soldiers, etc."

A Senior Chaplain

Has testified as follows regarding our work. He says: "I want the Salvation Army because Salvationists look after the souls of the men."

Here is one instance which goes to prove that assertion. The story is told by

An Army Officer

He says: "A man, one of the roughest in the regiment, who boasted his infidelity, came the day they were off to the front and told me, 'Look here, Captain, although I've been an infidel so long, and boasted that I did not believe there was a God, I have to confess that since I have been here I have seen such practical religion lived out that it has knocked all the infidelity out of me, and I shall try to be different. I have watched you Salvation Army folk living amongst us and sharing our life; and have wondered how you could do it, and have come to the conclusion that there must be something in your religion to help you.'

Your Help Needed

To enable The Army to carry on and extend this work, we want all our readers to contribute of their means for the purpose of getting more Huts erected. Hand a donation to the Officer of the Local Corps, or fill out the coupon below and send it with your subscription to Commissioner Richards.

To COMMISSIONER RICHARDS, TERRITORIAL HEADQUARTERS,
JAMES AND ALBERT STS., TORONTO, ONT.

I enclose the sum of to help defray the expense of erecting Rest Huts for our troops in France.

Name.....
Address.....

Pray! Pray! Pray!—For the Winter Campaign

PERSONALIA
TERRITORIAL

CANADA EAST

The following message was sent to The General and the Commissioner on his birthday (March 18):

"General, Our Officers and Soldiers salute. Our children greet, and, with crowds of outside friends, congratulate your adding another year's victorious record. Canada East is with your heart for every day's advance."

On the morning of the day he left for the Vimy Ridge campaign (March 5th), the Commissioner formally opened the William Booth Memorial College at Davisville, Ont.

The Commissioner and party left New York on schedule time, sailing noon on March 7th.

The Chief Secretary and Mrs. McMillan will conduct a week-end camp at Owen Sound March 24-25th.

In a letter dispatched from Halifax, Lieutenant-Colonel Bond says that he and Mrs. Bond were having a very pleasant voyage up to date. On the first Sunday at sea the passengers asked the Colonel to conduct Divine Service, which he very gladly did, after securing the Captain's permission.

Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. Hargrave conducted the Young People's Annual meetings at Lippincott, and report a fine time, with one soul for Salvation.

Brigadier Salter is expected to arrive in this country shortly. He will accompany the Officers of Canada West who are going to China.

Several Officers in Canada East have volunteered their services for China, and will be going with a second contingent some time later.

Brigadier Adby recently met the Toronto Division Officers and said his plan was to have the required amount for the erection of Rest Huts for Canadians troops in France. The Officers were most enthusiastic and pledged themselves to do all in their power to help boys along the way. Captain and Mrs. Scott were welcomed at this time as the new Divisional Young People's Secretaries, and Adjutant and Mrs. Cameron said farewell.

A big scheme is being planned in Toronto in connection with the raising of funds for the Rest Huts at the front. The Salvationists have given permission for a street collection to be taken on March 21st, and good results are looked for.

Brigadier Green is now en route to Jacksonville, Florida, where the temperature is ninety degrees. He has been compelled to remain away from the office for several days.

An effort to get a new building at Verdun is now under way, and Brigadier Morehen, with the able assistance of Adjutants, Miller and Richardson, is doing his best to secure the necessary funds.

The Army are now in ban for the Good Friday meeting in Toronto. The Massey Hall has been secured and Brigadiers Adby and Bell are working on the details of the programme.

The Chief Secretary's Department is working hard-handiedly at the breakdown of Mrs. Esson Watkinson, who has had to undergo an operation. She is now recovering better.

Adjutant and Mrs. Kendall had a very successful campaign at Beau-ton; a report of which will appear next week.

Ensign Wiggins, whilst on his new appointment at the Montreal Rescue Home, had the misfortune to be in the train wreck at Trenton. She writes to say that she escaped with a few bruises.

A wire received from Ensign Johnstone, of New Westminster, says: "I have intelligence that Private Gold Fay, who previous to his enlistment was a Corps Officer with the rank of Captain, has been promoted to Glory from a hospital in France. Much sympathy will be felt for the widow and family."

Adjutant Adams reported that the Ensign Department had good success during the month of January in finding missing persons. Seven teen cases were satisfactorily concluded.

Captain Reggie Simco has been appointed Divisional Young People's Secretary for the Hamilton Division.

An interesting event, in which Captain and Mrs. Scott were greatly concerned, will take the Commissioner to London on April 10th.

Captain Woods has been appointed to the Halifax Rescue Home.

Lieutenant Milner has been appointed to assist at Niagara Falls; and Lieutenant Morris goes to Preston.

The Dress-making and Tailoring Department at Headquarters is now well prepared to handle new business; several power machines having been installed.

CANADA WEST

Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton will conduct the farewell meeting of the China Party at Vancouver on Wednesday March 14th.

In the absence of the Commissioner, Major Sims (Men's Social Secretary) was present as The Army's representative at the civic reception to Their Excellencies the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire.

The Territorial Secretary will conduct the farewell meeting of the China Party at Winnipeg on March 11 and 12, on Tuesday and Wednesday, March 6th and 7th, respectively. On the afternoon of Wednesday March 7th, the new Divisional Young People's Secretaries, and Adjutant and Mrs. Cameron said farewell.

Owing to the visit of their Excellencies the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, the farewell meeting of the China Party at Vancouver on Saturday, March 11th, Lieutenant-Colonel Turner cancelled his week-end meeting at The Pas, and, in company with Brigadier Taylor, paid a visit to their Corps on Thursday, March 9th.

The China Party will leave Winnipeg, accompanied by Lieutenant-Colonel Turner, on Wednesday night, March 11th, and they will visit Regina, Swift Current, and Calgary, en route for Vancouver, their port of embarkation.

Major Sims (Men's Social Secretary) left the city on Saturday, March 3rd, for Regina and Edmonton, where he will conduct Men's Social Annuals.

Captain Leksen has returned to the office after his five-weeks' Properly Instruction tour. The Captain conducted a number of meetings at the various Corps he visited.

Captain Norburg, we are glad to learn, is progressing favourably after his operation for appendicitis. Lieutenant Faulkner is also regaining her strength. Pray for these and other sick comrades.

The farewell meeting of the China Party at Winnipeg bids fair to be a most interesting gathering. Some prominent Chinamen will be present, together with quite a large number of their friends.

(Concluded on Page 16)

DON'T BE BARNACLES
SURE-SEEKERS" AT EARLCOURT

COMMISSIONER RICHARDS SCORES "SPIRITUAL PLEASURES" AT EARLCOURT

"The Soldiers of the Earls-court and Wycombe Corps gathered together at the first-named Hall on the evening of Wednesday, Feb. 28th, to enjoy a meeting given to his constituents, the ninth in one of the divisional meetings he has organized during the beginning of the year.

Expectations were high for a soul-inspiring and profitable meeting, and a wonderful spirit of unanimity and fervent desire for spiritual blessings prevailed on the evening occasion. This was evidenced by the readiness to pray and testify. There were no long pauses, one active in seeking to be on the alert to take some active part in the meeting. It was a splendid sign that the two Corps—Wycombe and Earls-court—met on fire for the extension of God's Kingdom.

The Chief Secretary led the testimony meeting, and spoke of the evidences of God's workings in many parts of the Empire. Brigadier Adby soloed.

The Commissioner had great liberty as he poured out his soul on the all-important topic of soul-winning. He referred to it as the A B C of religion. "No one was ever truly converted but he desired to

NEW TRAINING COLLEGE IS FORMALLY OPENED AND DEDICATED BY THE COMMISSIONER

THE formal opening and dedication of the William Booth Memorial College took place on Monday morning, March 5th. The Commissioner presiding over the proceedings, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, the Territorial Secretary, and the Rev. Mr. G. E. Moore, president of the Royal Society of Arts, participated in the ceremony.

"Bless all who have had a hand in bringing about the creation of this college," he continued. "Bless the Salvation Army, and as long as this building bears the name of our revered Founder help us all to follow in his footsteps in seeking the Lord and spreading the news of Salvation."

The Commissioner then read the following passage of Scripture:

"For we are labourers together with God; ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building." According to the grade of God's husbandry into which we are born as master-builders, we have laid the foundation and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon. For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Christ Jesus."

The Training College Principal (Brigadier Bell) said that he considered it a privilege and an honour to speak on an occasion like this. The Chief Secretary, he said, had already reminded us of the close association between the Army and the Church. "When we enter the occupied city," he continued, "I can wish nothing better than that the things done here will be characteristic of our first General Assembly."

"I have had together to dedicate this place to God's glory," said the Commissioner, who then led in the singing of "My Jesus, I Love Thee."

The Chief Secretary then prayed: "Lord God, Thy pleasure is known in the effort made by the Canadian Salvationists to erect a Memorial worthy of our esteemed Founder, and becressing His Presence and favour in all future Army Work which will be done in His Name. We pray for the future Cadets who will receive their training within these walls," he prayed. "Make it a very Befit to their souls: a House of God."

The Colonel also remembered in prayer all the wounded soldiers who

(Concluded on Page 16)

"THE WINTER CAMPAIGN"—WHAT ARE YOU DOING?

Shadowgraphs

BY THE SHADOW

The party returned from London jubilant—a wonderful week-end, but Shadow can only deal out second-hand news.

SHADOW HEARS—
That an able arm, or shall we say limb? of "The War Cry" Staff was present, and readers are sure of efficient information.

That Mrs. Commissioner Richards' Home League Button was scrutinized with great eagerness and pleasure by the sisters of the Corps.

That a fine lot of Field Officers assembled in one of the small rooms of the building for an Officers' meeting on Tuesday morning—forty-four hungry souls—and they were fed with morsels from Heaven.

That things look healthy in the Maternity Hospital, and that great developments are likely to follow the visit of the Commissioner and Mrs. Richards, the Chief Secretary, and Mrs. Lieutenant-Colonel Read.

That the Commissioner was heard to say, everything went like clock-work in the week-end meetings, thanks to Adjutant Layman and his workers.

That Ensign Martin has done well in connection with the raising of the money—and that the comrade-Soldiers and Locals will hand in their subscriptions immediately.

That arrangements are being made for the dedication of the new Training College to God. At first for the use of the wounded returning from the war and later for Training purposes.

That the Commissioner and Mrs. Richards enjoyed their visit to London immensely, and were particularly happy and at home with Brigadier and Mrs. Rawling and their charming girls.

That the Friday afternoon meeting was of a fine spiritual character, and fully enjoyed by all present.

That Brigadier Bell's visit to Verdun was very successful, and especially the afternoon meeting on Monday, which was well attended.

Shadow was told that after seeing the comrade-wives—and when the Officers, Soldiers, and friends heard that the Canadian boys at the front were not as well provided with Rest Huts as the other Dominions' troops overseas, they said, "Gee!"

When they saw a plan, as outlined by their Divisional Commander, to provide Huts for the benefit of our boys in France, they said, "Whiz—go ahead; we are with you!"

Shadow's good friend, Brigadier Miller, seems to be busy these days plan-drawing—new properties and renovating old ones is the order of the day.

Where is the Commissioner, Chief Secretary, and Social Secretary going? Why, on an inspection tour to the Men's Social Institute, and Shadow hears that in the afternoon the women's side will be visited.

Shadow hears that Mrs. Adjutant Calvert has been appointed as Pr-

(Concluded on Page 16)

IN THE SOLDIER'S HOME IN GLORY

THE LIGHT IN THE VALLEY

Funeral Palling of Mrs. Sergeant-Major Mills of Halifax II.—Impressive Funeral and Memorial Services.

"Can you see that light? It is coming for me?" These were the last words of our beloved comrade, Mrs. Sergeant-Major Mills of Halifax II. They were spoken to the nurse who attended her and were evidently connected with the song, "There's a light in the valley for me," which Mrs. Mills sang with such fervour as she lay dying.

The funeral service was conducted by Major Crofton, assisted by Staff-Captain and Mrs. Byers, Adjutant Hurd, and Ensign Cranwell. About five hundred people packed the College Hall, and the service was very impressive.

The Memorial Service was conducted by Staff Captain and Mrs. Byers. Sister Mrs. Venid sang "There's a light in the valley" and spoke of the last hours of Mrs. Mills. Other speakers were Brother McCay, Brother Young, Ensign Byers, Sergeant-Major Larder, Treasurer Larder, and Envoy Gerow.

The bereaved husband, Sergeant-Major Mills, was asked to say a few words, and he thanked every one for their sympathy and interest in his sorrow. Mr. Mills, he said, was known to all as a good woman, and to her comrade-Salvationists as a willing Soldier.

Ensign Cranwell (the Corps Officer) said he had visited Mrs. Mills often, and she was always impressed with her happy spirit and cheerfulness under all circumstances. Mrs. Staff-Captain Byers added, "Pearly White City" and spoke of the peaceful end of our dear friend.

Adjutant Hurd paid a striking tribute to her life and worth as a Salvation Soldier, as a wife, and mother; and Staff-Captain Byers gave an address from the text, "When shall appear we shall be like him." He urged us by appealing to the people to be like Christ in going after the lost. Two souls plunged in the Fountain.

Brother Jublin—Guelph—Killed in Action

We are very sorry to have to report the death of Brother E. F. Jublin of Guelph. He enlisted with the 7th Battalion and went overseas last April, but while in England was transferred to another Battalion (the 5th), and went to France last August. He is the first Soldier from the Guelph area to die for honour, justice, and liberty. He was wounded in France on the Somme front by a sniper, after the battle was over, while he was attending to the wounded, for he was a member of the Medical Corps. He lived but a short time, Mr. E. F. Rossell, and from there passed peacefully away without any pain. He was buried at Warley.

God made him a great blessing in his fellow-soldiers. The Lieutenant of his company, in whose care Mrs. Jublin placed him, has a true Son of Christ, and he never met a man who deserved a better life; and that his influence was for good upon the men. He made mention of one service in particular that Brother Jublin did, which would never be forgotten. The straightforward talk he gave the men. They listened with interest, and some of the boys afterwards, in writing home, said how they were helped by our late comrade to live better lives.

Previous to enlisting he was the Band Secretary, and at different times held Local Offices in the Corps, and was loved and respected by the Soldiers and all who knew him. When word came of his death a business man said, "Well, Brother Jublin was a good citizen and a true Christian, and an asset to The Salvation Army. He was received here New Westminster, Sept. 1890."

He was a native of Sweden, and not being able to speak English, it hindered him a great deal—but God saved him and used him to His honour and glory. He became a Christian in a place called the Pacific Park, with the rank of Lieutenant. He was afterwards made Captain, and had several appointments in British Columbia.

Brother E. Jublin

While at Juneau, Alaska, he married Captain Crawford, and for a number of years they worked among the Indians of Alaska. Six years ago they came to Guelph and settled down as Soldiers, bringing with them a young girl—who, at the present time, is stationed at Clinton, in the person of Lieutenant Anderson.

A memorial service was held in the Citadel on Sunday night, Dec. 24th, for our late comrade. Many were the expressions of love and sympathy. Several societies were in attendance, of which he was a member, and each had a representative speak, who told of his sterling character, his kind heart, his lodge members. Whatever walk of life he was engaged in, he always witnessed for his Master, and was highly respected for his goodness.

The top photo shows the procession proceeding through Agricola Street, Halifax. The lower photo shows the coffin being borne from the Army Hall.

and genial disposition. Band Secretary Logstaff spoke on behalf of the Band, words of love and sympathy, and made sure the band contained an irreproachable volume, but he urged for some one to volunteer to fill the vacant chair, which was draped in purple and white and on it was the instrument he played so well. The Honorable Robert also desired making a lasting impression on all. Treasurer C. Dawson, in representing the Corps, spoke of the value our late comrade was to the Organization; but he knew that Brother Jublin felt it his duty to go and set up his own little Kingdom, and he did this without doing an act of mercy; helping his fellow-man. His motto was to serve not only King and country, but the King of kings and humanity, and he died in so doing. While the King and loved ones were the losers, he felt sure that Heaven was the richer.

Frayers were offered on behalf of the widow and fatherless children and relatives, that they might be upheld by the strong arm of Jehovah in their trials. We know how wonderful way God comforted Sister Jublin, and we pray that the children may be protected and grow up to serve their father's God.—L. Wells.

Brother Payton, Fort Arthur

Brother George Payton passed to his reward on Sunday, Jan. 20th, after a serious illness, from which he suffered considerably for years—cancer of the stomach. Brother Payton is among the oldest Salvationists of the Dominion. He was elected as a Soldier about twenty-seven years ago, and previous to his going to Dorion (sixteen years ago), was an Officer in several Ontario towns and in the States; but, on account of ill-health, had to resign. He was a loyal Salvationist in the end, and whenever he came to town we glad to see him and do all in his power to help The Army. He was thought a great deal of in the district where he resided.

Because of ill-health and age, he was not able to go overseas, but he did his bit as long as possible on the Home front, giving lectures, giving the classes, etc. Before he came he gathered the family around him and bade them all good-bye; imploring them to follow Jesus; by the Corps, where he worked faithfully.

The memorial service was conducted by Captain Butt, Adjutant Captain Sanderson of the Citadel Church, where a number assembled out of respect for our departed comrade. Our prayers are that God may support the bereaved ones, who feel the loss so keenly.—R. D.

Brother Luke Crocker, Heart's Delight, Newfoundland

Brother Crocker had been ill for a considerable time, and his death came in spite of a relief from suffering. He was a favourite in the Corps, and on Feb. 8th the Hall was packed for the funeral service. At the memorial service many comrades spoke of his confidence in God and His Word.

We sympathise with the parents in their loss, especially seeing that the family is separated so far apart. One son is fighting somewhere in France, another son and daughter are at Port Arthur, and the rest of the family are scattered in different parts of the Island. May God comfort and sustain them all.—G. C.

Sister A. Peckford, Horwood, Nfld. We much regret to say that death has visited this place again and taken from our midst Sister Alice Peckford, wife of John Peckford, who died at the age of 135 with consumption fits. She was only sick two days, their God, who is too wise to err and to just to be unkind, saw fit to release her from her suffering, and to-day her place is vacant and she is gone.

The funeral service was conducted by Captain Butt, who spoke impressively from the words, "It is appointed unto man once to die, and after that the judgment." To the surviving relatives and friends, especially the husband and little baby only a few days old, May God comfort and sustain them in their hours of bereavement.—L. Wells.

NEWS NOTES and COMMENTS

ONE OUTCOME of Germany's intensified submarine war has been to speed up British agricultural production. Two thousand American tractor plows, fitted with searchlights to allow of night plowing, have been ordered by the British Government. There are to be driven by taxicab drivers and chauffeurs, and behind each plow will be a skilled farmer, assisted by prisoners, conscientious objectors, members of the home defence force, and women. By the means proposed to largely assist the efforts of the enemy to starve Britain.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN are now forbidden to leave Canada, in order to visit Great Britain or France. The order, it is understood, is with the qualifications and is not made in the instance of the Imperial authorities on the grounds that their transportation took up valuable transportation space, and their maintenance on the other side complicated the food situation in the Mackenzie mountains even the Indian knows nothing about, and it will be many years before the mystery of Northern Canada is lifted for the cartographer.

THE GERMAN SUBMARINE campaign is not bringing the results that the foe expected, though our losses are serious enough. During February 202 ships were sunk, the tonnage totalling over 465,000. This is over fifty per cent. short of the million tons which the foe boasted he would sink.

AS A DIRECT RESULT of Prohibition the police force of Kingston is to be cut in half. Two men recently resigned, and their places have been filled by the instance of the Mayor. The Mayor will ask the Police Commission to cut off four more constables. It is becoming increasingly evident how much crime was due to drink.

THE WOMEN OF Ontario have been granted the franchise, and will now be able to vote at provincial elections. All women of the full of age of twenty-one years, who are British subjects and who have resided in the Province for the requisite period, are entitled to vote.

ANALYZING the German and British war loans, Mr. Bonar Law (Chancellor of the Exchequer) points out that the total number of subscribers from one shilling upwards to the last German loan was 310,000. The total number of subscribers from one shilling upwards to the new British war loan is over 8,000,000.

THE GREAT RAILWAY of 5,000 miles in length, that runs across the face of one of the most marvellous in the world, first because of the difficulties that had to be faced in building it, and, secondly, because of its enormous length. For nearly 1,000 miles along this steel train the last crosses the treacherous plains. In crossing this line is one continuous view of snow, stretching for miles and miles along the seemingly endless desert. Water for the stoves and the engines has to be brought steaming water, so that it should freeze on the outside, and other means of ventilation, in the depth of winter, have to chop off long cycles from the engine and carriages.

IT HAS BEEN STATED BY Sir Edward Carson that not a single British sailor has refused to sail on account of the recent mutiny. Our brave sailors are upholding the best British sea traditions. Britannia rules the waves, because her sons are worthy of her honour.

"Wind-Jammers" Approaching Home Waters

The sailing ships and the five-masted schooners have come into their own owing to the conditions existing at the present time. Here we see a fully-rigged ship forging along under a strong wind followed by a five-masted schooner. These vessels have proved useful in helping to swell the volume of available tonnage.

Seven Years a Bartender

NOW A YOUNG PEOPLE'S SERGEANT-MAJOR—ALL GLORY BE TO GOD!

The following account of his conversion was sent to us by Young People's Sergeant-Major Baker of Estevan, He says:

I d. not want to bother you about the whole of those seven years, but feel led to write just a few words concerning my experience since God sent The Army to Estevan in May, 1910, and I became a Christian by the Delight Theatre one Sunday evening, when I heard singing, and I felt that I should go in and listen. I did not go, however, but went on my way, and afterwards heard that it was The Salvation Army.

Afterwards I began to attend the meetings, and during the prayer meeting, one of my best customers went to the Mercy Seat and got converted. When asked what I thought of that, my answer was that I would see him first thing Monday morning for an ex-pander. But, of course, I did not know the power of my companions. I do hope that the Officer who sent me to speak to me about my faith. Laughingly they asked me, "Why?" I said, "Because I could not tell them a lie."

The very next Sunday Captain English came to me in the prayer meeting and asked me if I had ever been converted. I had before, but had not been back to my meetings; and I do not think since

The Army came to Estevan that I have missed twenty open-air services. Why?

I did not know then, but I know now, that God was calling me. His Word said, "I will call you." Then said the Captain, "Wouldn't you like to be?" Yes, I replied. Come and give your heart to me.

The following October Captain English asked me if I would teach Company. I told her it was impossible, but he insisted. "Pray about it," he said. And God did. I told him, "I am not fit for it." He said, "Yes, you are. Give up the business. Go to the Army." "But I did not have the faith." As time went on, I began to attend all the meetings during the week and all the meetings on Sunday. I could not keep away from The Army. Men would say, "Let's go to Salvation Army." Fred and I got drunk in it. I was a Salvationist, but I knew that I was a sinner, and a bad one at that.

"On July 18th, at 9:15 p.m., as the comrades were singing, 'Your garments must be white as snow,' I went to the Mercy Seat and asked God to partake sins and to let me meet Him and Hell. He has done so. From that time He has kept me.

"The following October Captain English asked me if I would teach Company. I told her it was impossible, but he insisted. "Pray about it."

"I did, and God did. I told him, "I am not fit for it." He said, "Yes, you are. Give up the business. Go to the Army."

"But I did not have the faith." As time

THE WAR CRY

March 17, 1917

ARMY SONGS

SPEAK A WORD FOR JESUS
Tune.—We have lived and loved together,
Speak of the love of Jesus,
Who laid His Kingship by;
Descending from the Throne to earth.

For us to live and die;
His love a priceless treasure,
Boundless and without measure;
The love of Christ our Lord.

Chorus
Then speak a word for Jesus,
Where'er the lost you greet;
And pray the word thus spoken
May lead them to His feet.

Speak of the Blood of Jesus,
Shed on the cursed tree;
To purchase our redemption,
That we might pardoned be;
The Blood which saves from sin;
And purifies within;

The Blood of Christ our Lord.

Speak then to all of Jesus,
There's longing hearts around;
Now craving for the blessings,
Which you through Christ have found;
The more you give, if you refrain,
Then speak for Christ our Lord.

—Colonel Henry Bullard.

THY PROMISE I CLAIM

Tunes.—No home on earth, 72;
Song Book, 366.

Come in my Lord, come in and make my heart Thy home;
Come in my Lord, come in and dwell with me alone!
Thyself to me give, in fullness of Thy love;

Thyself alone will make my heaven,
though all The gifts remove;
Come in my Lord, come in, show forth Thy saving power;

Restore, renew, release from sin—
Oh, be this very hour!

The promise now I claim, by faith put in my soul;

And just in my slighty name:
Immanuel and Thee.

My Lord, Thou dost come in—I feel it in my soul;

I heard Thy words, my Saviour King:
Be every whit made whole!"

Glory to God on high! let Heaven and earth agree,

My risen Christ to magnify—for, lo!

Him lives with me.

PASS ME NOT!

Pass me no, O loving Saviour,

Hear my humble cry;

While on others Thou art calling,

Do not pass me by.

Chorus

Saviour, Saviour, hear my humble cry, etc.

Let me at the Throne of Mercy
Find a sweet relief;

Kneeling there in deep contention,

"Help my unbelief."

Trusting only in Thy merit,
Would I seek Thy face;

Heal my wounded, broken spirit,

Save me by Thy grace.

TAKE ALL MY SINS AWAY!

Tunes.—Sovereignty, 119; Madrid,

117; Song Book, 16.

Would Jesus have the sinner die?
Why hangs He there on yonder cross?

What means that strange, expiring cry?—

(Sinner, He prays for you and me)

"Forgive them, Father, Oh, forgive!"

They know not that by Me they live!"

Then loving, all-atoning Lamb!
Thee—by Thy painful agony,
Thy body sweat, Thy grief and death,
Thy cross and passion on the tree,
Thy precious death and life—I pray,
Take all, take all my sins away.

NEW TRAINING COLLEGE

(Continued from Page 9)
and that the very best work had been put into it.

After a solo by Brigadier Adby, who a choir sang a hymn in honor of General William Booth's "I Can't Believe in Thee," the Commissioner offered a dedicatory prayer. Referring to Solomon's prayer at the dedication of the temple, he prayed that the Glory of the Lord would come down into the Memorial Training College.

"We separate it for holy purposes," he said. "May Thy blessed Presence permeate the place. Grant that The General's great ambition and desire may be carried out in the spirit of sacrifice. Offer us as shall revolutionize this Territory."

The little ceremony then came to a close, after which every one was conducted over the building by Brigadier Miller, who explained the uses to which the various rooms would be put.

SHADOWGRAPHS

(Continued from Page 9)
mary Instructor for Montreal, Toronto, with Mrs. Brigadier Attwell, and now Montreal; and the largest cities are in good running order.

Shadow expects soon to hear of other centres finding energetic Primary Instructors. *

Shadow noticed Lieut.-Colonel Chisholm at a territorial headquarters Thursday, and heard that he stated that the Home League figures in "The War Cry" will be more than doubled by the end of the Campaign.

Shadow heard that the Commissioners and their Secretary were pleased with the condition of the Metropole and Resene House in Toronto; and that congratulations were accorded to Envoy Moat (Metropole) and Mrs. Ensign Stitt (Resene House).

FOUR SEEK HOLINESS

At crowded meeting in Parliament Street Citadel, led on by Brigadier Bell.

Interesting and inspiring times are being experienced by all who attend the United Holiness Meetings in Parliament Street. All is shown by the fact that the meetings of last evening (March 3rd) had a larger attendance than any other this year, scarcely ten seats being vacant.

The preliminaries being over, we heard a short but definite testimony to the blessing of Full Salvation.

An interesting feature of the meeting was the farewell testimony of Sergeant-Major Creswell, of the Canadian Corps, who spoke shortly for everlast. The Sergeant-Major said that he had received great blessing from the United Holiness Meetings, and his soul has been strengthened by the same. Immediately following the talk, Brigadier Bell prayed that God would bless the Sergeant-Major and his family, and bring him safely back.

The Cadet Singers sang with much feeling a selection entitled "I'll follow Thee" after which the Brigadier gave the last of his series of addresses on "Salvation" in its different aspects, the topic of which was "Salvation: A more forceful and definite manifestation of the love." During the prayer meeting four sought the blessing of a clean heart.—F. Knight.

A MALTESE ROMANCE

(Continued from Page 14)
place, came the sound of blows being struck on some metal.

"What can it be?" asked Joe.
"Let me go and investigate," said George.

The sound came along one of the old steps, leading up to one of the old chapel, not the one they had entered by, and the two men very cautiously crept forward without a light.

(To be continued.)

LODGES FOR WOMEN

The Salvation Army maintains Lodges as follows:

"Scots" Lodge, 163 Pleasant Street, Halifax, N.S.

"Catcar" Lodge, 24 Calcart Street, Montreal, Quebec.

"Rosedale" Lodge, 131 Sherbourne Street, Toronto, Ontario.

"Balmoral" Lodge, 238 Balmoral Street, Winnipeg, Manitoba.

"Wellesley" Lodge, 2215 Lorne Avenue, Regina, Saskatchewan.

"Mount Pleasant" Lodge, 75 Seventh Avenue East, Vancouver, British Columbia.

Young women visiting or locating in the above-mentioned cities will find comfortable accommodation at the addresses given. For particulars, apply to the Matron.

WE ARE
Looking For You

We will search for missing persons in any part of the Empire, and for all persons lost or captured in the war.

Address: H. R. G. & E. James and Alfred Street, 10, Liverpool, Lancashire, England.

One thousand dollars will be paid with every case, where possible to both parties concerned.

Officers, Soldiers, and Sailors are required to assist in the search.

Address: H. R. G. & E. James and Alfred Street, 10, Liverpool, Lancashire, England.

Miss Coleman, 1118, Native of Wakefield, Yorkshire, England.

Led here for nearly seven years ago.

She is now in New Zealand, and is very anxious to return.

MORTEN NELJUS, 10956. A Norwegian, thin, dark, East head of in height, blue eyes, brown hair, and a mustache.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

Address: 10956, 10956, 10956.

Arrived in Canada March 11, 1916.

<p